

SNEE FARM COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
BOARD OF DIRECTORS NOMINEE BIOGRAPHIES

Adrian Cain-936 Casseque Province:

With a passion for leadership development, regional collaboration and consensus building, Adrian Cain serves as the Senior Vice President of Community Advancement for the Charleston Metro Chamber of Commerce and Executive Director of Charleston Chamber Foundation. Adrian has dedicated his career to inspiring and leading transformational and organizational change, economic mobility, and community advancement.

Adrian is completing his first term on the Snee Farm Community Foundation board, serving initially as treasurer and now as president for the last two years. He is proud of the Snee Farm Community and the community centered approach that the board has been able to achieve.

David Lane-875 Law Lane

David and his family have lived in Snee Farm for the last 19 years. David has a degree in political science from UGA and opened his own fishing charter business in 2011-Marsh Maven Fishing Charters.

He has served on the Board the last two years as the Landscape chair for the Foundation. He has overseen various capital projects as well as all the routine maintenance. When he isn't fishing or chasing his two daughters around, he is either working in his yard, cooking something on the grill or attempting to play tennis.

Allyson Malick-956 Legends Terrace

Allyson has lived in Snee Farm for 17 years and loves the neighborhood. She is a registered nurse and recently retired. She would like to help Snee Farm continue to be a great place to live.

She possesses the following qualities that could serve her well as a Board member:

- Ability to adapt and change
- Willingness to share information
- Ability to play fairly and to be honest and consistent
- Knows when to seek help
- Ability to delegate
- Ability to not take things personally

Allyson thanks you in advance for the opportunity to serve
